

Working with Leslie was an absolute pleasure at every stage of the design process. She is exceptionally attentive to details, incredibly friendly, and marvelously inventive. Turnarounds were always quick and questions were always answered immediately. The amount of preparation and research Leslie had already done about our project at our initial design discussion floored me. In just a few conversations, Leslie truly got a feel for our group and used her design prowess to create something that is a true reflection of who we are. I was thrilled by the incredible site Leslie produced for us and even more excited by how easy it is to use and update.
